Gu Achi District
Process for Homesite Name Transfer

A copy of one of the following documents is required to process:

- A. Court order or probate order acknowledging the homesite transfer.
 - B. The homesite that was granted by a Living Will or Last Will and Testament by the original land assignee.
 - C. If the original homesite assignee is living, a signed, notarized document is required stating that he/she agrees to the homesite name transfer.
 - D. If the original homesite assignee is deceased and there is no living will or probate document, a signed, notarized document is required from immediate family members stating that he/she is in agreement of the homesite name transfer.
1. Pick up a Homesite Name Transfer form at the Gu Achi District office, your community representative, or the Gu Achi District website @ guachidistrict.com. ONLY ONE NAME MAY BE LISTED PER HOMESITE. Homesite assignee must be an enrolled member of the Tohono O'odham Nation.
 2. Homesite Name Transfer form shall be presented at a community meeting as a courtesy and for community information/awareness only.
 3. The Homesite Name Transfer form shall be submitted to the District Council Secretary, along with the community meeting sign-in sheet and any other documents needed to process. The District Council Secretary shall prepare the Homesite Name Transfer Form for Policy and Procedure Committee review.
 4. The individual and/or immediate family member requesting the homesite name transfer and the community representative shall attend the Policy and Procedure Committee meeting.

5. Policy and Procedures Committee may or may not forward to the District Council for approval (i.e., incomplete form, non-attendance, lack of documentation).
6. If the Homesite Name Transfer Form is forwarded to the District Council, the requester shall be present at the District Council meeting.
